From Rotary International: On 12 November 1908, the Rotary Club of San Francisco was chartered at a formal banquet attended by founding members Homer Wood, Chester H. Woolsey, and Roy R. Rogers.

Wood, a young attorney who'd arrived in San Francisco only the year before, learned about Rotary from Manuel Muñoz, who was in town on business. Muñoz was a new member of the Rotary Club of Chicago and a close friend of its founder, Paul P. Harris.

They are looking for a Group Leader and four members from the community. Bilingual should not be a problem. Last year, they had only four applications for the group leader position. The position needs to be a Rotarian in good standing.

Quip of the Week: Totally Bats

Two bats are going for their midnight feed. After an hour or so, one bat gets tired of looking and goes home with no blood. The other bat comes home with blood dripping from its mouth. The first bat says enviously, "Where did you get all that blood from?" The second bat replies, "Follow me. I'll show you." After awhile the second bat leads them to a cave. He says, "You see that wall over there?" The hungry bat excitedly says, "Yes!"

Other bat says, "I didn't."
