Rotary news in brief from around the globe. Aadila Sabat is on a personal mission to help achieve one of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals.

Sabat works in Los Angeles for mothers2mothers (m2m), a nongovernmental organization that educates and supports pregnant women and new mothers on issues related to HIV and maternal and child health. She helps train new mothers living with HIV to provide such support to women like themselves. These "mentor mothers" then work alongside doctors and nurses to serve the needs of this population group, helping to lessen the burden on critically understaffed health systems.
